

The main goal of the project is to build the KPIs, OKRs and benchmarks in the form of visualizations.

The visualizations represent the analytics for one week (the script runs weekly).

The data is loaded from various sources (SQL, NoSQL). Hence there are 2 types of initial data: structured and unstructured. In the transformation stage, everything is converted into structured data and saved into .scv files.